Consider your tie with us a permanent one, even though you are leaving. You have been too long a member of has been dearly won. this community to put it aside with cap and gown. is a mutual benefit of great significance which will link us together down through the years. For you are the personification of the fruits of our labors, and in this product we take great pride. Our affectionate regard goes with you.

Down Memory Lane

With the opening of the new Primary building we bid farewell to the time-worn friends pictured above. They had been the scholastic homes of many of the parents and grandparents of our school children today.

The old high school, pictured on the left, dates back to the middle 1870's while the primary building, right above, dates back to 1916. Previous to these times classes were held atop Hogback in a one room building erected in 1865, and in a two room school built in 1872 on the site that is now Mr. Harvey Zeigler's Funeral Home. The first school in Londonderry Township was built just below Fossilville in 1813.

Names of School Directors such as Deaner, Fischer, Noel, Goodwin, O'Roke, Kramer, Sproul, Tempke, and Henschke, all deceased, bring back tense but respectful thoughts of teaching conditions before Teacher Tenure. The creaky and crowded stage where Junior and Senior Class Plays were held before "packed" houses of 125 bench-and-desk sitting, proud parents, when a $65.00 gate was tops in the late 20's and early 30's. The 8x7 foot Principal's office where Mr. Keller reigned supreme from 1935, the large maple trees on an unpaved playground, where a trackmeet was held, are now casualities of progress.

Principals Keller, Howe, Swaunger, Beatty, Wolfe, Maclay, Miller, Schriver, Price, Coughenour, Luman, LeFevre, MacGregor, and Hyndman's first Principal, Cristman, all of whom administered to small graduating classes - (Horace Beck, lone graduate of the 1906 class and Randall Shaffer, the only graduate from the 1925 class and the first from the 4 year high school).

Crowded conditions actually didn't seem crowded - but - then, "crowding" 45 members of the band into the 8x14 foot band room, that was once the Chemistry Laboratory and later the football dressing room, came awfully close to crowded conditions.

The memories of the good-old-days of a once booming Hyndman, its many nearby brickyards and hotels.

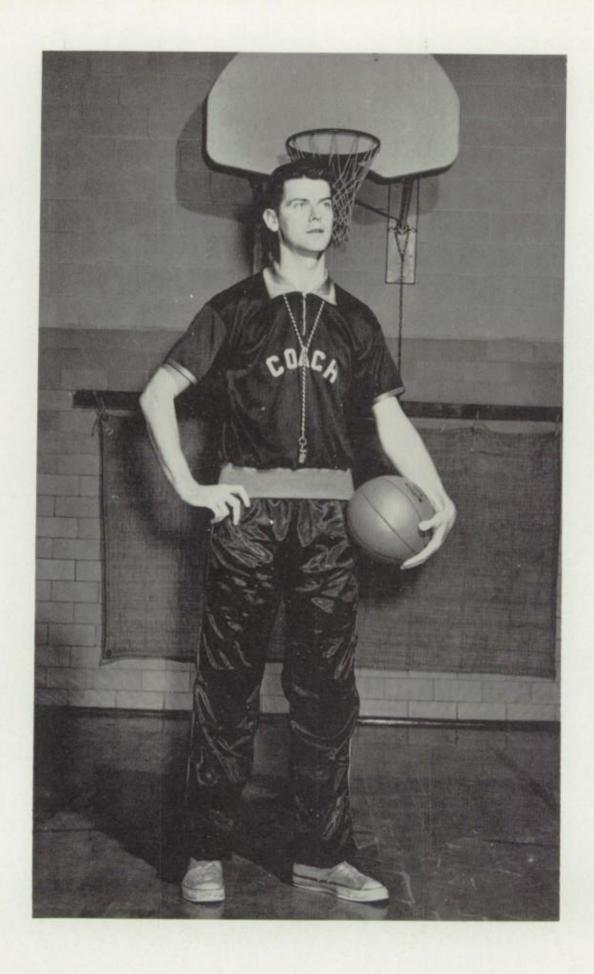

To me and to you who were there this section of Schellsburg Street will always hold nostalgic memories of things that used to be.

Coach Harry McKinley

Whose teams brought County Championships to Hyndman High both in Baseball and Basketball for the season 1957-'58.

The feat being remarkable, in that, with Class C teams was able to vanquish Class A and B schools throughout the county.

Quietly accomplishing this double chore with little fanfare we proudly dedicate this Annual to one who deserves more than was tendered him.

Class Will

The Senior Class of 1959 doth hereby set forth her Last Will and Testament and as such doth hereby revoke or rescind any or all other Wills previously made by her and thereby declare the following individual excerpts as final and conclusive and will in nowise retract any form of said Will. These, then, may be termed final and conclusive, and, as such, must be termed legal to the point where such benevolences are given in the true light of philanthropy, to wit:

Ray Taylor timidly wills to George Shaw, Eileen Larsen, and Cloyd Bittner, from nearby Fairhope-town, the necessary "City slicker" atmosphere, so that they also may become 'smoothies' in their Senior Year.

Rita Atwell relinquishes, reluctantly, her all-too-many corridor trips to Mila Leydig with the suggestion that the latter will see fit to suppress said unnecessary habit.

Jay Bittner will consign his "Sneaky-Pete" characteristics to Paul Clites with the hope that Paul will store same and forget same.

Russell Flanagan will deed over to Ross Mays his procrastination in all things scholastic.

Carolyn Carpenter donates to Thelma Logsdon and Carole Logsdon her mysterious ways and a dateless (?) Senior year, the sum total of which may lead to oblivion. Bernard Mazer will leave his trumpet ability and accumulated dividends from the Dance Band for Roger Cook to apportion to some deserving musician.

Kendall Browning will cede all his unused shirt buttons and a bared chest to Royce Waltman to contain same to the basketball court.

Raymond Browning will give up his braggadocio to George Resh, who mayhap, may see fit to hogtie it.

Florence Cook resigns her sadness and reserved manners to Carol Rizer.

Rosalee Campbell donates her explosive nature to Sandra Rexroad and Marlene Kirchner, the combination of which may produce a nuclear reaction.

George Cook cedes over to Floyd Imler an uneventful and lackluster Senior year. Janice Cauley will exchange her pleasantness for a portion of Mae Belle Gaster's nonchalance.

Roger Delozier will entrust to his neighbor, Charles Burkett, all his secret, if ineffectual, desires and dreams of a rosy future.

Shirley Evans wills her ladylike and completely serene Senior year to Brenda Haines for continuance of same.

John Deneen cedes his politeness and studious ways to all those Junior boys needing more of the same.

Helen Gibbner will present her method of proceeding quietly-and alone-to her classes to Loretta Troutman, Marsha Stallings, and Mary Lou Taylor.

Ray Fichtner donates his blocking ability in football to any non-playing basketball candidate.

Audrey Kline bestows her unique bashfulness to Zella Zeigler.

Larry Leydig turns over his presidential gavel to the proper Junior personage. Faith Korns pledges to Eleanor O'Reilly the HOPE that her Senior year will be as CHARITABLE as hers became.

Pearl Leydig donates her singing ability to Paula Clapper and Sandra Cook.

Thomas Logsdon and Norman Mason will offer their unhurried and unused scholastic talent to John Shaffer.

Willa Leydig gladly gives up two lonesome semesters to another lonely heart--Reeve Wise.

Connie Miller's 'let's get to the point' attitude is consigned to Linda Minnick.

Gary Miller's reluctance to over-exert himself lesson wise is consigned to Fred Diehl.

Sonja Minnick's ebullience is pledged to Mildred Scritchfield to exhilarate the latter's spirits.

Robert Ream's methodical approach to positive thinking and his inhibitions are dealt to Kenneth Shoup.

Charlotte Reed's gentle nature is donated to Caralee Hunt.

Edward Scritchfield's complete frankness and hurt feelings are consigned to Victor Holler.

Joyce Shaffer will bestow her mysterious mannerisms to Nancy Moore.

John Sager entrusts his ability to wheedle the most out of life's problems to Dale Crabtree.

Colleen Shroyer will exchange the deviltry in her eyes for portions of the same from Sandra Lowery and Winifred Thompson.

Gary Shaffer's artistic talents are conceded to James Miller for study and cogitation.

Edward Thompson's reluctance to become a scholastic 'brain' is conceded to all Junior boys able to stand on their own two feet.

Sharon Crawford entrusts her material success to those Junior girls contemplating the plunge in their Senior year.

Charles Wisler's studious approach to lesson assignments is surrendered to Michael Kendall.

Carol Winebrenner will apportion notes on proper protocol for engagements to Gertrude Shaffer and Carreen Thomas.

Witnessed and approved this day, January 1, 1959.

Everett C. McVicker,

Counselor.

Class History

We entered our Freshman year with $1.25 in our Treasury. This we used to "sponsor" several skating parties, bake sales, swimming parties, and a class play called "Junior is a Genius." Our officers were: Ray Taylor, President; Edward Thompson, Vice President; Faith Korns, Secretary; and Gary Shaffer, Treasurer. We gained one new member, Larry Leydig. During the year and at the closing of the 1st year we lost ten members, they were: Allen May, Merle Lowery, William O'Neil, John Shaffer, Max Kisner, Mae Emerick, Charlene Leydig, Robert Burkett, Roberta Thomas, and Judith White. Our Sponsors were Mrs. Kipp and Mr. Porter. We began with 52 members in the class and ended with 42.

We entered the Sophomore year with $190.00 in the Treasury. Our Class Play was called "Three Dying Swans." We gained one new member that year, John Sager and lost three, Nancy Whitney, Virginia Ranker, and Dorothy Shroyer -- all lost because of MEN. We ended with 42 in the class. Our Sponsors were Miss White and Mr. Stewart.

We entered the Junior year with more than $300.00 in the Treasury. Skating parties and candy sales were the order of the day. The class play entitled "Comin' 'Round the Mountain" starred John Sager as "Paw" and Connie Miller as "Maw." The Juniors presented the Seniors with a sumptious Prom highlighted with some tremendous art work. The theme of the Prom was "Sail Along Silvery Moon." We lost one member of our group to the Navy, Lewis Mowry, but gained two: Robert Ream and Thomas Logsdon. Our Sponsors were Mrs. McKinley and Mr. Miller.

As the year is not yet complete many more important decisions are yet to come. We are looking forward to the Prom, the Senior yearbook, the Washington trip, Baccalaureate and of course Commencement. Class Officers for the Senior year were: Larry Leydig, President; William Fichtner, Vice President; Edward Thompson, Secretary; and Edward Scritchfield, Treasurer. Our Class held stable throughout the year with 38 hoping to receive diplomas. An interesting sidelight in comparison with the $1.25 Treasury in the Freshman year the Seniors transacted better than $3,000.00 worth in activity funds. Senior Class Sponsors for the Senior year were William Benoit and E. C. McVicker.

Beneath the hills and vales of Willis mountain,
We lift our hearts in songs of praise to thee;
Dear Hy-Lo High, keep glowing the fountain of Knowledge and truth that keeps us free.
We pledge our love, our strength, and our devotion;
'Till when with joy, our songs we will bring,
Oh, let us keep our hearts bound close forever,
With ties of orange and black, and memories to sing.

Tom Arsdale Johnny Sager
Dean Marlow Edward Scritchfield
Peaches Carter Rita Atwell
Asma Carolyn Carpenter
Birdie Laverne Sonja Minnick
Barbara Sanford (Babs) Janice Cauley
Alfred Tennyson Murgatoyd Larry Leydig
Caroline Connie Miller
Anthony Arsdale Raymond Browning
Sylvia Webster
Chuck Mayo Kendall Browning

Mrs. V. Harclerode directed the play, Mrs. Loughney assisted. Prompters were Florence Cook and Shirley Evans.

Resume':

Tom Arsdale, a girl shy young fellow was being chased by a fellow college student, Babs Sanford. Oke Stimsom, who was anything but girl shy, was Tom's roommate.

Everything was going pretty smoothly until Tom receives word that his father, Anthony Arsdale and his Aunt Caroline were coming to visit him at college. The worst of it was they were bringing along Sylvia Webster, the girl from home. After arranging a fake engagement between Babs Sanford and himself Tom then manages to load off Sylvia onto the class poet, A. Tennyson Murgatoyd. Peaches Carter, Oke's ball and chain, definitely approves of the switch.

Dean Marlow of the college invites Tom's Aunt Caroline to the masquerade dance and Sylvia is escorted by Alfred.

Birdie Laverne, the cleaning woman, who after failing to break into pictures is united again with her one time boy friend, Chuck Mayo.

For the second year in a row the female Hornets of the 1957-'58 season, pictured above had a successful season. In splitting 12 games the 2 year win-loss record became 14-10. Much credit can be given to the girls as competition came from Class A and B schools.

Humor

59

Where there's a Will there's always a relative.

Connie to Willa: It's so annoying. She told me not to tell anyone and everyone I tell already heard it.

Sharon C .: I have my husband eating out of my hand.

Helen G .: Saves dishes, doesn't it?

Browning: Why did the baby shoe leave home?

Delozier: I don't know.

Browning: Because the father was a loafer and the mother was a sneaker.

Flanagan: I failed in all my tests but Chemistry. Fichtner: How come you didn't fail that, too? Flanagan: Because I don't take Chemistry.

Mrs. Loughney: Wny was there so much darkness in the Dark Ages?

Ken Diehl: Because there were so many knights.

Why did the little moron cut off his finger? So he could write shorthand.

Mrs. C.: No, don't get me anything expensive for my birthday. I'd rather have something you made yourself.

Mr. C.: Such as what?

Mrs. C.: Money.

Many a blind date has opened a man's eyes.

I'm not in the habit of forgetting faces, but in your case I will make an exception.

When I'm right no one remembers. When I'm wrong no one forgets.

Sue's date sent her an orchid. The card read: With all my love and most of my money. Jim.

Daffy-nitions

A fish net: A bunch of holes tied together with string.

A nail: A thing a man aims at while hammering his finger.

Generally: The head of the Confederate Army.

Modern Art: Oodles of Doodles. Cold War: Snowball battle.

File: A place where everything is filed alphabetically and lost systematically.

Ice cube: A real cool square.

Paratrooper: A person who climbs down a tree that he never climbed up.

He was never one to walk away from a fight--especially if he could run.

Miriam: Why does the little duck walk softly?

Verona: Because the little duck can't walk hardly.

Mr. Miller: This examination will be conducted on the honor system. Please take seats three apart and in alternate rows.

Did you hear the sad story of the two red corpuscles who loved in vein?

Reeve W.: What model truck does your father have? Carol K.: It's no model, it's a horrible example.

A dumb girl is a dope. A dope is a drug. Doctors give drugs to relieve pain. So a dumb girl is just what the doctor ordered.

High heels were invented by a girl who was kissed good night on the forehead.

Real Estate Man: Would you like to see a model home?

Don Wagner: I'd be most glad to. What time does she quit work?

Judge: How could you steal from your own Grandmother?
Youth: It was simple. I just waited until she was asleep.

Doctor T.: How is the patient who swallowed the half dollar?

Nurse A.: No change yet, Doctor.

Florence: I'll have you know I don't go out with perfect strangers.

Juggy: Calm yourself. I'm not perfect.

Dinner Guest: Will you pass the nuts, Professor?
Absent-minded Prof: I suppose so, but they should flunk.

Mr. Foster: Norman, what are nitrates?
Norman: They're cheaper than day rates.

Mrs. Eskimo: You look terrible this morning, what's wrong?

Mr. E.: I'm a nervous wreck. Those crazy dogs must have barked two months last night.

These Doubtful Don'ts

My parents told me not to smoke;

I don't,

Nor listen to a naughty joke;

I don't,

They told me it was wrong to wink At handsome men, or even think

About intoxicating drink;

I don't,

To dance or flirt is very wrong;

I don't,

Wild girls chase men and wine and song;

I don't,

I kiss no men, not even one

In fact I don't know how it's done

You wouldn't think I have much fun----I DON'T.
